The result of the annual inspection, so far as it has reference to this division, proves satisfactory. Although the system board should not come here, yet with the failure to secure said recognition, they must, no doubt, feel highly complimented by receiving the praise of having the best division on the entire L. & N. system, and then again the Mannington section got or will get the section board, and if reports about are true, it is the best section on the L. & N. system. But the judges whom we must concede to be fair and impartial in all their decisions, have decreed otherwise and therefore, like law-abiding citizens we must abide by said decisions without complaint, but patiently await the coming of another annual inspection when it is to be hoped that the Henderson division will be able to catch everything in sight from system board down.

The following circular has been issued by General Manager Harahan, of the Illinois Central, formerly with the L. & N.: "It will generally be found that if the company's agent and local officer will furnish the press the facts in matters in which the public has an interest the newspapers will greatly such action and will refrain from publishing exaggerated or highly colored accounts of circumstances connected with the company's operations. Many a newspaper makes such exaggerated reports because they are unable to secure from the proper representatives of the company the actual facts, and are, therefore, compelled to glean their information from persons who are not always familiar with the facts and who may be prejudiced against the road."

The most important feature of the court last Saturday in Louisville was the big suit of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company against the Louisville Bridge Company. The petition makes the Jeffersonville, Madison & Indianapolis Railroad Company, the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago and the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis roads co-defendants. The petition makes numerous charges against the bridge company, chief among which is that it has violated its contract in many ways, principally, however, in its collection of toils. The real purpose of the suit is to compel a new contract by which a new rate of toll will be charged. In the final prayer of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company seeks judgment for $26,864.29, paid in the way of surplus toll.

Catarth Cannot be Cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarth. Send for testimonials, free.
